

Councillor Kaza is a U.K. citizen and represents Kenilworth South (Borehamwood) ward. He has been a career banker for forty years and was the Chief Executive Officer of the State Bank of India, London (2002-05).

He has two Masters degrees, in Nuclear Physics and Financial Management and is a Lord Aldington Banking Research Scholar (1986).

He is the former President of UK Telugu Association (2010-12) and has been the President of Indian Forum on British Media since 2015. He is a prominent member of the Indian diaspora in UK.

Running his own company, Kaza Business Consultants Ltd, he supports local business.

He is also the founder of Women's Cricket Fans Network Facebook page which boasts of 89,000 members.

In the town he is a champion of proper parking of vehicles, provision of public facilities and rights of disabled persons.

He is a member of Environment & Planning and Community Safety Committees in the Town Council.

Lives in Stretton Way, Borehamwood with wife and son.